"The War Off Drugs"

ccncarmen0722@aol.com - (240) 291-5555

In this presentation, Carmen argues against prescription drugs for quick-fix remedies, which has increasingly become the status-quo for treating physical and mental health maladies in today's society.

This presentation is life-changing! Carmen will share stories and cases that will touch your heart. You will learn the latest scientific findings, with special attention to quality research on the topic. You will hear quotes from qualified authorities. You will discover alternatives to prescription drugs, and learn how to have a fulfilled life by not taking them. Carmen even goes after energy drinks, and you will hear about safer ways to regain strength and stamina.

Carmen is a poised, energetic, and enthusiastic speaker, who is loved and respected by the audiences she touches. She designed this presentation for general audiences filled with teachers, parents, and concerned citizens. Carmen first delivered this to a general audience at Richland Community College in Dallas, Texas. She is fully bilingual, and can deliver this presentation proficiently in Spanish to Latina audiences.

In this fast-paced 20-30 minute presentation, accompanied by striking visuals, Carmen makes these points:

- Society wants easy and fast solutions to physical and mental health.
- Prescription drugs produce lasting harmful side effects.
- Energy drinks produce the complete opposite result from what they advertise.
- Illegal psychiatric drugs are associated with many types of crimes.
- There are healthier and more effective remedies than prescription drugs.
- Eastern societies have successfully shunned drugs and are exceptionally healthy.
