

Clap is a book where we all clap along, because sometimes a book has a beat like a song! This fun twist on a call-and-response picture book has kids clapping their way through this silly and boisterous story that is perfect for story times and read-alongs. Nobody sits still while enjoying Uncle Ian Aurora's rowdy clapping rhymes, but the fun illustrations from Natalia Moore are sure to still keep all eyes on the book. Pick up Clap to read aloud, and get ready for things to get a little loud!

Clap
ISBN: 9781486709458
Trim Size: 8.75" x 11.25"
Format: Dust Jacket, 32 Pages
SRP: $16.99
Ages: 5-8
Grades: K-2
GRL: G
Lexile: 320L
BISAC: JUVU009030, JUVU051000, JUVU043000

2017 IPPY Bronze Medal Winner in the Children's Picture Books (7 & Under) Category

"An interactive book that got my kiddos clapping, stomping, and counting. The cartoony characters and bold marker-writing font caught the kids' attention, and the parents enjoyed playing along with their little ones. This is entering my permanent storytime rotation."

—Rosemary Kiladitis, momreadit.wordpress.com

ALSO AVAILABLE IN PAPERBACK!
7.25" x 10.25", 32 Pages, SRP: $6.99
ISBN: TITLE:
 9781486712786 Clap

Uncle Ian Aurora is from the cold mountains of the great white North. He is a man of unlimited joy and mischief. Known for his exceptionally loud yet skillful storytelling ability and wildly hilarious stories, Uncle Ian has certainly made a name for himself. Flowerpot Press was beyond thrilled when he came to us with his exciting new title, and we immediately jumped on the chance to tell Uncle Ian's boisterous and adorably fun story.

Natalia Moore lives and works in England. Her work has been published in the United Kingdom, United States, Korea, and all across Europe. Natalia has illustrated picture books, poetry, greeting cards, and even chocolate packaging. She works with mixed media and adds the finishing touches to her work digitally. Natalia likes to draw from real life and is never without her sketchbook.