IN AND FOR BROWARD COUNTY, FLORIDA

STATE OF FLORIDA
Plaintiff

CASE NO(S): 15014566CF10A

JUDGE: Siegel

vs

Anthony Williams

Defendant

ORDER APPOINTING EXPERTS TO DETERMINE COMPETENCY

It appearing unto this court that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the Defendant is not mentally competent to proceed at this material stage of the criminal proceeding, it is:

CONSIDERED, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Defendant be examined to determine whether the Defendant has sufficient present ability to consult with his/her attorney with a reasonable degree of rational understanding, and whether he/she has a rational, as well as factual, understanding of the proceedings against him/her, setting forth an analysis of the mental condition of the Defendant as it affects the Defendant's

- a. appreciation of the charges against the Defendant;
- b. appreciation of the range and nature of possible penalties that may be imposed against the Defendant;
- c. understanding of the adversary nature of legal-process;
- d. capacity to disclose to attorney facts pertinent to the proceedings at issue;
- e. ability to manifest appropriate courtroom behavior;
- f. capacity to testify relevantly; and
- g. any other factors deemed relevant.

If the experts find the Defendant incompetent to proceed, they shall include any findings that the Defendant has met the criteria for involuntary hospitalization as described under Chapter 394 and 916 F.S. or any recommended treatment referring to the following:

1. the mental illness or mental retardation causing the incompetence;
2. the treatment or treatments appropriate for the mental illness or mental retardation of the Defendant and an explanation of each of the possible treatment alternatives in order of choices;
3. the availability of acceptable treatment. If the treatment is available in the community, the expert shall so state in the report; and

4. the likelihood of the Defendant attaining competence under the treatment recommended, an assessment of the probable duration of the treatment required to restore competence, and the probability that the Defendant will attain competence to proceed in the foreseeable future.

The written report shall describe the evaluation procedures and tests used, as well as the expert's clinical observations, findings and opinions on each issue referred for evaluation and indicate those issues on which the expert could not give an opinion.

The report shall identify the sources of information used by the expert and present the factual basis for the expert's clinical findings and opinions.

The experts shall have access to the Defendant's medical records.

The experts appointed shall include a DSM-5 Diagnosis.
