

I really can't give you a tune for this one, go ahead and make one up.

The Frog Song

Oh frogs have the sweetest voices,
They can sing the whole day long,
And if you open your window on a summer's night,
You will hear their song.

Rebbit rebbit – Croak croak (Since frogs don't really have sweet voices, exaggerate the croakiness)

Rebbit rebbit – Croak croak (Maybe crouch on the rebbit, and stand tall on the croak?)

La la la, la la lah!

Rebbit rebbit – Croak croak

Rebbit rebbit – Croak croak

La la la, la la lah! (Sing this part like a fake opera singer – arms out etc)

Let's all do the froggy hop! (Everybody hops around like crazy frogs)
